In Matthew 28:19-20, Jesus directed his disciples (us) to 'Go ...make ... baptize ... teach ... ' 25 April 2010 is the day marked around the world as Internet Evangelism Day. In its 6th year of observance, the last Sunday of April it set aside for us to examine and leverage our Internet presence to share the good news of Jesus Christ. In this day and age, more people visit Facebook than Google. So, if you are reading this, you probably have a Facebook page. Does it reflect your faith? Should it?

Think and pray about how God might be leading you to share hope with those you encounter on Facebook - your neighbors, old classmates, or colleagues from work. Learn more at the Internet Evangelism Day website.
